

Seek Together™

Dow KSA

- Establishment of The Dow Chemical Company in Saudi Arabia.
- Dow and Saudi Aramco sign an MoU to construct, own and operate a world-scale chemicals and plastics production complex.

Establishment of SAMCO, a joint venture owned by Tasnee Sahara Olefins Company (TSOC) of Saudi Arabia and Rohm and Haas, a Dow subsidiary.

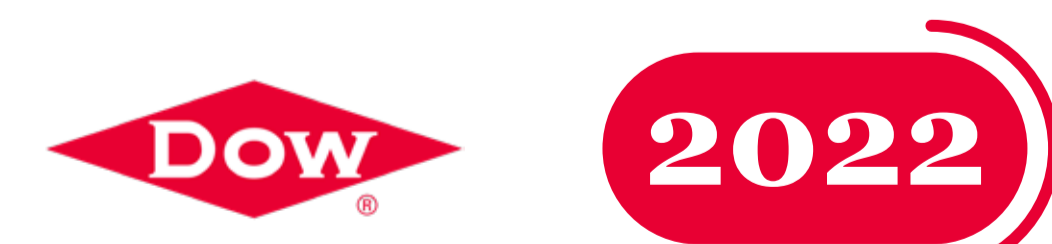

Announcement of a new dedicated building for Middle East Innovation Center at KAUST.

Sadara announced the commercial operation of all facilities in the complex

Dow and Al-Hejailan Group form a joint venture to build and operate a polyacrylic acid (PAA) and emulsion polymers plant in Jubail.

- Dow and Al-Hejailan Group sign an MOU to form a joint venture to build a methyl diethanolamine (MDEA) in Jubail.
- Dow announces to build Dow-owned downstream manufacturing facility to enable solutions for the energy transition.

Dow becomes a founding member of the collaboration program at King Abdullah University of Science & Technology (KAUST) and signs an agreement with the University for a multi-million-dollar R&D program.

Formation of Sadara Chemical Company JV with Saudi Aramco and beginning of site construction in Jubail Industrial City.

Dow is the first foreign company to receive a trading license in Saudi Arabia.

- Dow makes first product shipment under trading license.
- Dow inaugurates Middle East Innovation Center at (KAUST).

Dow Middle East Innovation Center at KAUST earns LEED Gold Certification in energy and environmental design.